We are contacting you today on behalf of the more than 33,000 members of the Obesity Action Coalition (OAC). It has recently come to our attention that Facebook is hosting more than 50 pages specifically targeting and bullying individuals affected by obesity. Many of these pages include derogatory and disrespectful language, including some that directly promote physical harm to children affected by childhood obesity (e.g., setting these children on fire). These pages greatly perpetuate the negative stigma and prejudice often associated with the disease of obesity. Individuals affected by obesity are frequent targets of stigma and discrimination in many settings such as employment, healthcare, school, pop culture and social media. Youth who are obese are especially vulnerable to online victimization, and there are increasing reports of suicide among these youth that stemmed from weight-based bullying.

On Facebook.com, located at www.facebook.com/help/?faq=243758932322379, Facebook states the following in regards to abuse and policy violations:

"Facebook does not tolerate hate speech. Please grant each other mutual respect when you communicate here. While we encourage the discussion of ideas, institutions, events, and practices, it is a serious violation of our terms to single out individuals based on race, ethnicity, national origin, religion, sex, gender, sexual orientation, disability, or disease."

Based on this statement, the OAC believes the attached pages are in violation of your abuse policy. On behalf of all OAC members, we respectfully request that you review these pages for such a violation and consider removing them from Facebook as they serve no purpose other than singling out and stigmatizing individuals affected by the disease of obesity. In light of Facebook's recent efforts and commitment to support anti-bullying and bullying prevention, we would hope Facebook would be consistent with its policies to create a civilized forum where people can converse without hateful comments. If you would like to discuss this issue or the issue of weight bias and stigma with me personally, please feel free to contact me at our National office at (800) 717-3117.

Sincerely,

Joseph Nadglowski

OAC President and CEO
